

The Gift of Health

Many of us don't take the time needed to refresh and rejuvenate our minds, bodies and spirits. Imbalances in your life can manifest health problems that could plague you daily. Our goal is to help you realize and relieve these imbalances, providing you with much-needed peace.

The wholistic approach to healing offered by Daniel Reiher incorporates both ancient and modern methods. Our blending of spiritual consciousness and professional health training promotes rapid results in profound states of relaxation, spontaneous insights into, and relief from, the causes of stress, pain, tension patterns and limitations in your life.

We offer customized sessions by appointment.
